The Warren (Mich.) Police Department has deployed eight American-made Victory Commander I motorcycles to replace existing Harley-Davidson models. Victory Police Motorcycles come complete and duty ready from the moment they leave the factory, tailored to the department's specifications.

Sergeant Paul Kelly credits the new bikes with improving relations with the community. "...[M]y third day on the bike has been nothing short of cooler than cool," Kelly gushes. "I can't tell you how many people are stopping me and asking about the bike." Warren Police Department is the first agency in Michigan to switch to the Victory platform.
